

When we surrender the journey begins.

"We felt we were in a battle to control our using and that, if we surrendered, the drugs would win. In recovery, we find that surrender involves letting go of our reservations about recovery and being willing to try a different approach to life."

SIS is excited to announce we have moved the retreat!!!!

We are still nestled in the redwoods only now we are on flatter ground. We still have fully enclosed Cabins (with electricity), which sleep 6-8 ladies, as well as 3 sided Cabins which sleep 6-8. The price for both includes 5 catered meals as well as snacks. If you have any questions please contact:

There is limited space in the enclosed cabins. We suggest you pre-register early to ensure you get the type of cabin you want.

What to bring.

- Newcomers.
- Bug spray.
- Flash lights.
- Pillows and blankets.
- Items for Raffle and Auction
- Your Sponsor
- It's a little more inland so expect warmer weather.

As women we often take on the care giving role leaving little for our own self care. This is why we ask please no Men, Pets or Children. This is a time for YOU and YOUR recovery.
